Respect for Taxes
Tells You Where
Seat of Power Is

As citizens scramble to beat the deadline for payment of federal income taxes this Thursday, April 15, you are reminded that respect for taxes is the surest indication of where the seat of political power is today.

A large measure of respect for taxes and governmental power used to exist in local government, but failure to face up to local taxing obligations has shunted the burden to the federalists. And as the adage goes, the man who pays the fiddler calls the tune—so today the same local people who wouldn't pay taxes at home have not only lost their independence but pay still higher taxes to a bureau 1,100 miles away.

Which shows you the folly of trying to run away from the obligation to support essential public services. Yet a local tax structure keeps money at home—100 per cent. Economists, as I recall, figure only 50 per cent of state taxation returns to the local level—and only 25 per cent of federal levies. I have always believed in fair and thorough tax collection at home—one special advantage being that local taxes are deductible from today's tough federal levy.

Incidentally, we checked with Hope Post Office about how today's tax-deadline mail will be handled. Technically the deadline is midnight. But in Hope it will be 9:30 p.m. Mail deposited inside the post office by 9:30 will be so postmarked. But it must be put in the chutes inside the building. Don't attempt to use the outside box at the street curb. If you do so your tax return will be postmarked the next morning, April 16—and you will face a delinquency payment.

Youth Shot in Arm at Local Park

Tommy Edwards, 18, of Hope, was shot in the left arm about 9:45 last night at Fair Park. The incident occurred near the Rodeo Arena and the bullet from a .22 cal. gun left a flesh wound that was not considered serious, officers said.

His companion, Michael Patterson, also about 18, has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon pending completion of the investigation, City Patrolman Purtle said.

Investigating officers said they had noted several conflicting stories, one that caused an area alert until it was discovered to be false. They said a loaded and cocked gun apparently was being passed back and forth by the pair.

Mr. Purtle, Deputy Sheriff Howard Milam, State Police Lt. Travis Ward and State Trooper Neal are investigating.

LL&T Firm Hearings Continue

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Louisiana Loan & Thrift trial is scheduled to resume today, but the poor health of state Rep. Salvador Anzelmo, a defendant, may postpone it again.

Judge Alvin Rubin said Wednesday he would wait for a doctor's report on the New Orleans legislator before determining if the trial would resume. Anzelmo, whose presence may be required, has complained of dizzy spells and the shakes.

However, the judge has already notified the jury to return for a full half-day session. The trial has only been in session three full days and one day of that was to select a jury. The trial opened April 5.

Anzelmo, state Atty. Gen. Jack Remillion and Ernest A. Bartlett Jr., a Booneville, Ark., businessman, have been charged in a federal grand jury indictment with fraud and conspiracy in their dealings with the now defunct LL&T.

Americans Welcomed to Shanghai

By JOHN RODERICK
Associated Press Writer
SHANGHAI (AP)—Eighteen Americans strolled in spring warmth today along the Shanghai Bund, the famed waterfront of China's largest city, from which the Communists drove their countrymen more than two decades ago.

The 15 members of the U.S. table tennis delegation and three newsmen with them flew to the big industrial port from Peking, where they spent four days.

The flight was made aboard an Ilyushin 18, and Shanghai table tennis players and officials met the Americans at the Rainbow Bridge airport.

All along the road into the city, the visitors saw youngsters, some with packs on their backs and carrying photos of Chairman Mao Tse-tung, hiking to the countryside for out-of-school indoctrination in politics, production methods and military affairs.

The Americans were lodged in the Ho Ping or Peace hotel, once the proud Cathay. With its new Tientsin rugs and spacious rooms, it is one of the best in China.

Only two members of the party had visited legendary Shanghai before, John Rich of the National Broadcasting Co. and me.

Rich was in Shanghai for a short visit in April 1949.

I left China from Shanghai in 1948 after a four-year assignment during which I covered both the Nationalist and Communist sides of the Chinese civil war.

The players and the newsmen were invited to the Chinese mainland along with several other Western teams at the end of the world table tennis championships in Japan last week. It is the first sizable group of Americans admitted to Communist China in the 22 years of the People's Republic.

The Americans saw the sights in Peking, lost a round of table tennis matches to second-string Chinese teams by narrow margins, and got a warm welcome from Premier Chou En-lai at a reception Wednesday afternoon.

On their last night in the Chinese capital, the Americans saw a Chinese opera, "Taking Tiger Mountain by Strategy."

Friday the group flies back to Canton, South China's metropolis 90 miles northwest of Hong Kong. They return to the British colony by train Saturday and are expected to leave for Tokyo and home after a few hours rest in Hong Kong.

Think What a Nagging Wife Could Do With Voice of Blue Whale

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: The voice of the nearly extinct blue whale, biggest of any creature that ever lived, can carry 100 miles underwater. Imagine being a male blue whale—and nagged by a wife that far away!

Although they look small and frail, seeds are among the hardiest forms of life on earth. Seeds of the lotus lily have germinated and grown after being buried for a thousand years.

Jobs are getting harder to find, but last year over four million Americans held two or more jobs.

Some Americans have the feeling—especially at this time of the year—that we are the most heavily taxed people in the world. We aren't. We pay about 30 cents in taxes for every dollar earned. Eleven European countries have higher tax rates.

Figures Friendly Red China Attitude Move to Be Admitted to UN

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Red China's surprising new display of friendliness toward the United States is regarded by authorities here as a key move in a Chinese strategy for winning membership in the United Nations next fall.

The Peking leaders, say experts here, foresee every chance of a victory in the U.N. General Assembly when the issue next arises and are working to reinforce this prospect.

Furthermore, as government authorities assess their aim, the Communist leaders expect not only to win new status and prestige for their regime on the mainland but also to deliver a devastating blow to the U.S.-allied Chinese Nationalist government on Taiwan. Peking's condition for taking U.N. membership is ouster of the Nationalists.

The Nixon administration, noting last November's General Assembly votes, sees no way to avoid a defeat. But administration officials hope to soften the blow by preserving Nationalist China's seat while seating Communist China. At most, experts agree, that generally unsatisfactory compromise would only delay a showdown on the whole issue for a year or two.

While winning a U.N. seat is identified in Washington as Peking's overriding purpose in recent maneuvers, two other elements are rated as important in its radical switch of attitude.

One is the prolonged state of low-level hostility between China and Russia which at

Israel Sends Raiders Into Lebanon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israeli raiders crossed the Lebanese border early today and blew up three houses in the village of Kfar Kela, then pulled out under a Lebanese artillery barrage, an army spokesman in Beirut reported.

There was no confirmation of the raid from Israel.

The Lebanese spokesman said poor visibility made it impossible to determine whether the Israelis suffered any casualties. Apparently there were no Arab casualties.

The raid was believed to be a reprisal for attacks on Israeli settlements by Palestinian guerrillas based in Lebanon. The Lebanese army reported three such Israeli raids last week and said seven houses in three villages were blown up.

Elsewhere in the Middle East—

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad left for Moscow to talk with Soviet leaders about Israel's continued refusal to withdraw from all territory it occupied in the 1967 war. He planned a brief stopover in London.

Riad said his visit to Moscow was "within the framework of regular consultation between the two countries."

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban told the Jerusalem Post the "oral" territorial demands Israeli leaders have made—control over the Tiran strait, the Golan Heights, the Gaza Strip and united Jerusalem, and demilitarization of the West Bank of the Jordan River—are a "maximal position" for negotiation.

"I think it sufficiently broad to leave room for flexibility, and not so rigid as to be ultimative," he said.

POCAHONTAS, Ark. (AP)—Zan Smith Jr., 24, of near Pocahontas was killed Wednesday when the pickup truck he was driving went out of control and overturned on Arkansas 166 about eight miles southwest of Pocahontas.

State Police said Smith was pinned under the vehicle.

Annexation Approved

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—A petition to annex 777.7 acres of land west of West Memphis to the city limits was approved Wednesday without objection by the Crittenden County Court.

The annexation, which will become effective after a 30-day waiting period and adoption of an ordinance of annexation by the City Council, will bring the Municipal Airport into the city limits as well as an unpopulated area owned by Jack W. Rich, James C. Rainer III and Bunge Corp.

S. Vietnam Launches a Counter Push

SAIGON (AP)—Thousands of South Vietnamese troops today launched a counter-offensive against North Vietnamese forces in the central highlands.

The North Vietnamese kept up their 16-day offensive with new attacks around besieged Fire Base 6, on a command post at nearby Tan Canh, and near Fire Base Lonely 80 miles to the south.

In eastern Cambodia, 200 miles to the south, North Vietnamese and Cambodian positions with one of the heaviest bombardments of the year.

The U.S. Command reported little action involving American ground troops, but field reports said one American adviser was killed and one was missing in fighting around Fire Base 6.

Four of the five U.S. advisers at Fire Base 6 were killed in action in Indochina last week, less than half the 88 reported killed in the week before. It was the lowest weekly toll in two months.

The South Vietnamese Command reported 523 government troops killed and 1,168 wounded last week. The allied commands said 2,894 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed over the same period.

South Vietnamese spokesmen at Pleiku said government infantrymen from the 22nd Division had begun fanning out from Fire Base 6 in a search and clear operation to drive the enemy from the base manned by less than two battalions of South Vietnamese.

Saigon headquarters announced that several battalions from the South Vietnamese 23rd Infantry Division also launched a new drive around Fire Base Lonely.

Three North Vietnamese troops were reported killed in a clash, while government losses were one killed and nine wounded.

Six U.S. helicopters carried in ammunition, food and water to Fire Base 6 today without drawing any fire.

But heavy fighting was reported about 1½ miles south-east of the base.

South Vietnamese headquarters said 38 North Vietnamese troops were killed in an hour-long battle with government paratroopers who were backed by U.S. air strikes. Four South Vietnamese paratroopers were killed and eight were wounded, headquarters reported.

Gets 45 Years in Kidnap, Rape Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—James Givens, 24, of Little Rock was sentenced Wednesday to 45 years in prison on charges stemming from the abduction of four young couples and the rape of the woman in each incident.

The incidents occurred in December of last year and January of this year.

Givens pleaded guilty to the charges Wednesday. He also pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with intent to rob in connection with an assault on two policemen who pretended to be a young couple parked where the other abductions had occurred.

Circuit Court Judge William Kirby gave Givens sentences totaling 300 years, but he made all of the terms concurrent. That meant the controlling sentences would be the longest—45 years on each of four kidnapping charges and two rape charges.

Hanoi Says U.S. Could End War by Accepting Peace on Red Terms

By MICHAEL GODSMITH
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP)—North Vietnam said today the United States can end the Indochina war quickly and honorably by accepting Hanoi's long-standing peace terms.

North Vietnamese negotiator Xuan Thuy, ending a six-week boycott of the peace talks, restated the Communist terms at the 109th weekly session.

Unless the Nixon administration accepts these terms, Thuy declared, it faces inevitable defeat throughout Indochina.

Thuy had told newsmen he would submit new "concrete" proposals on ending the war. But the proposals turned out to be a reiteration of the two-year-old Communist position.

Thuy said the United States must:

1. Withdraw all its forces by June 30 or by "another reasonable" date.

2. Cease all bombing and reconnaissance flights over North Vietnam.

3. Agree to the establishment of a coalition regime in Saigon removing President Nguyen Van Thieu and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky from power.

Thuy's restatement of the Communist terms indicated that the Hanoi leadership was not prepared to make any concession at this stage likely to break the deadlock.

Economic Picture Not So Bright

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite official optimism, the latest measure of the nation's economy points to a slow, sluggish recovery falling short of Nixon administration forecasts.

The Federal Reserve Board supplied the new yardstick Wednesday, reporting industrial production last month advanced by a fraction below two-tenths of 1 per cent, a less-than-dramatic gain in that key economic indicator.

In a time of strong economic activity, industrial output would be expected to climb more sharply. The small gain in March comes on the heels of a decline in February's index.

But White House economic advisers predict total output of the nation's goods and services will show a strong gain for January, February and March and put the economy on the track of reaching the good year President Nixon has pledged for 1971.

Raps Welfare Dept. for Not Cooperating

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Ivan Smith, head of the State Welfare Department's legal staff, says he is perplexed by statements by Prosecutor Sam Weems of Des Arc that the Welfare Department was not cooperating with him in prosecuting fathers whose children were on welfare rolls because of non-support.

Weems said Wednesday that he had asked the department for information on how much welfare money had been paid in aid to dependent children in his 17th Judicial District. He complained that the department had told him it might take as long as 90 days to supply the information.

Weems said he wanted to prosecute about 30 fathers under Act 372 of 1971, but said a father might move before he gets the information from the Welfare Department.

"We're not having any real cooperation," Weems said. "I don't know what the problem is up there."

Smith said the Welfare Department had cooperated with Weems on everything he has asked for within the limits of the department.

Casualties Lowest in Two Months

SAIGON (AP)—Forty-two Americans were killed in combat in Vietnam last week, the lowest toll in two months, the U.S. Command reported today.

The command's weekly casualty summary also showed a small drop in the number of U.S. wounded, listing 318 last week compared with 347 the week before.

The South Vietnamese Command reported 523 government troops killed and 1,168 wounded last week. The total killed was the same as the toll reported the week before, while the number of wounded was 10 less.

The allied commands reported 2,894 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed last week, 788 less than the week before.

The total of 42 Americans killed was less than half the 88 reported the previous week and the lowest total since the week of Jan. 31-Feb. 6, when 24 were reported killed.

A U.S. spokesman said 28 Americans died last week from such nonhostile causes as accidents and illness.

The U.S. Command now has reported a total of 44,918 Americans killed in the war and 297,576 wounded. Nonhostile deaths total 9,437.

The South Vietnamese have reported a total of 125,196 of their troops killed and 270,425 wounded. Communist troops claimed killed now total 733,645.

Nature Plays
Cruel Jokes
on West Texas

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer
SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Mother Nature has played some cruel jokes on this West Texas city.

It is only perversely funny to some when a dry lakebed burns, the city runs a pipeline to a dry reservoir, and a gallon of good water costs more than a gallon of gasoline.

There were few chuckles here when the Texas Legislature, in a lighter moment, toyed with legislation authorizing the city to build a pipeline to the moon.

And only a handful of people stamped out to purchase bumper stickers proclaiming the city of 64,000 the "Pipeline Capital of Texas."

The community pays $73,000 annually for 3,000 acre-feet of water it isn't getting from one reservoir, and $240,000 yearly for a pipeline it isn't using.

According to unofficial estimates, the city pays between $675,000 and $800,000 annually in water supply retirement debts on four lakes.

Only the smallest of the four, Lake Nasworthy, contains an appreciable amount of moisture.

Citizens distressed with the quality of water have turned, in vast numbers, to bottled water for drinking and cooking.

Mystic-Ozarka reports that bottled water sales have increased 85 per cent since last October. At $1.90 a five-gallon container, that's 38 cents a gallon.

Since last October, less than half an inch of rain has fallen. This, coupled with an absence of heavy rains in recent years, dried up one lake and depleted the water supply in others. The dry lake bed burned.

To circumvent this drought and potential future dry spells, the city has contracted for underground sources.

Prison Controversy
Was Big Issue in the Legislative Session

By MACK McLARTY
State Representative,
Hempstead County

On Monday, April 19, six members of the House and Senate will convene to evaluate procedural errors, if any, from legislation passed in the recent session. If no mistakes are found they will adjourn the legislature "sine die." If mistakes are found then the House and Senate will be called into full session to correct any errors.

Finding none, the 68th General Assembly will conclude what must be recorded as one of the most productive sessions in the history of the state.

Next week your representative will review in this column the major legislation which was passed.

The Prison Controversy
The Arkansas prisons have consistently been in the news of our state and have often received worldwide attention.

The problem is far from solved, as evidenced last week, with the firing of Robert Sarver as Corrections Commissioner.

Governor Bumpers, in order to get his $300,000 prison program appropriation, agreed to support the removal of Sarver. This, in turn, allowed the Board of Corrections to execute the firing openly with the Governor's endorsement.

There are two schools of doctrine regarding how our prisons should be run. The older more involved members of the House see some of the best farmland in the world not in full production. Many of these men come from farm backgrounds and in their minds it is a sin to let such productive land go to waste.

Another school says that to rehabilitate prisoners, to return them to society as productive people, to reduce the high return rate of former inmates we must have reform which does not emphasize agricultural skills.

On some points practically everyone agrees: (1) Youthful offenders should not be placed in the same quarters as the hardened criminals. (2) A maximum security unit should be built to separate the more dangerous elements. (3) A good parole system must be put into effect.

It was toward those ends that Governor Bumpers asked the legislature for $300,000 to implement such programs (plus a few other items).

It was because of the personality conflicts that the prison controversy came to the fore again.

Opponents of Sarver hailed the Governor's endorsement of the firing as good riddance of the last of the controversial directors.

Supporters of Sarver say that the Governor has forfeited his right to select qualified professionals to run state departments. They maintain that anytime the legislature wants to get rid of an administrator they now have the precedent to do so.

I feel that both sides are guilty for not exercising restraint and reason and for, once again, blackening the eye of Arkansas by allowing the prison system to become a political game.

In some earlier columns we pointed out that the legislature gave the new Governor practically everything he asked for. It is up to him to make it work, to solve the problems.

It is our intent to write occasional columns during the next year and a half to update you on the progress of implementing these programs. The prison controversy is far from over. The Governor is aware of this and has said that due to the magnitude of the original problems he may not be able to solve it in four years. How he goes about it may well be the key to his political future.

I don't feel that it is right for a Representative to evaluate without offering some solutions. I have long felt that the biggest problem was in the large number of returnees which any prison system has. Since the national crime rate has grown so drastically this is even a more acute problem. Our prisons have been a crime training ground for the young rather than corrective.

While serving as student President at the University of Arkansas I toured the prisons for two days. This was the time when the controversy was at its peak. My thought at the time was, "What is farm profit if you lose the man?"

We all agree that the trusty system is evil and immoral—one convicted with the power of life and death over another.

I support a three-part plan which, admittedly idealistic, would give us the best of both systems. (1) The establishment of a limited vo-tech school to train these men in skills which would give them the security of a good-paying job upon parole. (2) Operate the vo-tech school during the months of the year when the farming chores are at a minimum. (3) Convert the farm to a modern, highly-mechanized system and train agriculturally oriented inmates in modern farm principles and techniques. In essence, make the farm profits high again but not through "slave" labor. (4) Invest in a bigger more professional staff. (You can hire the world's greatest director, but if he does not have supportive qualified administration he can't carry the load.)

I support a balance of profitable agricultural operation and a part-time vo-tech school. After all, the men are there for pretty long time periods. Their time could be more properly utilized both to the mutual benefit of themselves and the state.

We all realize that you are not dealing in a prison with normal people, but you are dealing with human beings. I am not advocating a country club. I am advocating steady hard work, but work which teaches real skills, not work which just passes the time for an inmate.

The combination of a modern, mechanized farm operation and vo-tech training would provide Arkansas with a model prison program. Such monies invested now would return big dividends—both economic and psychological. How much better we would all feel knowing that positive progress was being made.

The motto of the University of Arkansas should become the motto of our attitude toward our prisons: "Truth leads progress." If we can be truthful with each other, genuinely evaluate our motives then we will make progress.

Shepherd said that about $129,000 had been raised so far. The $2 million is essential to ures output of the nation's factories, utilities and mines, while the economy's total output is measured by gross national product, to be released later this week. GNP, the administration says, is expected to look good.

But the industrial production index reflects what is happening in a key area of the economy, the automobile industry. In March, the board said, automobile production remained about the same as the February level, at an annual rate of 9 million units.

The administration's 1971 economic strategy hinges on a strong rebound in first-quarter auto production to lead the way to a vigorous recovery. Auto output was depressed last fall because of the General Motors strike.

The board said hopes of continued growth in the automobile sector in April appear unfounded. "Production schedules for April indicate some decline from the February-March rate," it said.

The index in March rose to 165.2 per cent of the 1957-59 average, up from 164.9 per cent in February, and a statistical advance of less than two-tenths of 1 per cent.

FASHION

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — One of the newest fashion lights on Seventh Avenue is The Fifth Addition. A subsidiary of the Schrader Corporation, it was born into an already cooling economy about a year ago when many dress firms were giving up the ghost. But under the direction of Abe Goldner as president, it flourished and has now taken its place as one of our leading dress houses.

The spring-summer collection, designed by Trieste-born Vicki Rocconi, is in praise of the "sensual woman."

Vicki makes her daytime clothes soft and fluid. One costume has a geometric printed silk dress with narrow pleated skirt and full sleeves under a long navy vest.

This young designer has an eye for soft colors, too, and uses yellow, soft green and many shades of blue, with staccato accents of red, orange and purple.

"Nothing was safe from my scissors," Vicki said, remembering her childhood. "I had the best-dressed dolls. I transformed everything I could get hold of, even my mother's best tablecloths, into wardrobes for them."

The fragile looking blonde always wanted to be a designer. While attending high school in Italy she studied design at Pellegrini Institute. Here in the United States she graduated from the Fashion Institute of Technology and quickly moved into the Seventh Avenue scene and six months ago joined The Fifth Addition.

In discussing her fashion credo, she said she believed that total femininity should be the ultimate purpose of design.

Soft, feminine clothes are her constant goal. "In fact," she said, "a woman can't be too feminine."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The bones of the nation's public assistance programs were bared effectively Wednesday night in ABC News' "The Anatomy of Welfare."

Most of the hour was filmed in Pittsburgh, showing a few of the 14-million people currently receiving public relief.

Narrator Frank Reynolds opened the program by observing that the present welfare set-up is not controversial: "Everybody is against it." Later Robert Lavelle, chairman of the Allegheny County Assistance Board, called it "one layer after another of mistakes."

Appearing on the program were a father of four children who recently was laid off his job and several women—deserted or widowed—with several young children. Lavelle said that despite talk of cheating and preferring welfare to work, about 75 per cent of his county's caseloads were women with young children. He said they, plus the aged, blind and handicapped, represented 97 or 98 per cent—all unable to take jobs.

There was much discussion of President Nixon's plan to replace the present systems with a minimum income. Pros and cons were examined passionately and clearly. It was

by Helen Bottel

ONLY THE UNSURE ASK QUESTIONS
Dear Helen:

My fiancé got in trouble with the law and has been sent up for two years.

I decided I loved him enough to wait for him, so wrote and told him. At first he was glad, but yesterday I got a letter from the penitentiary saying we should break our engagement. Just when I made up my mind to be true.

Helen, I think his only reason is that he wants me to have fun and not be lonely while he's gone.

What do I do? — H.C.

Dear H.:
If you were absolutely sure you want to wait, you'd be writing your fiancé, not me.

Don't desert him—he needs your letters. But don't tie yourself to commitments you may both regret later on. A "Let's be friends for now" policy is better than extravagant promises you might not keep. I think he senses this. Why not ask him? — H.

Dear Helen:
Here's a quote that all adults should read: "The mind is like a parachute: it only works when open." — READER

Dear Reader:
... "And too many people get their rip cords stuck," says daughter Sue.

(... "BOTH teenagers AND adults," adds you know who.) — H.

Dear Helen:
I disagree with "Incense" who ripped you apart because you didn't rip nudity as evil, mean and depraved.

I don't think it's wrong to skinny dip in your own back yard pool or any other closed-in area. After all, we come into the world naked, and we sure don't take our clothes with us when we go to Heaven or wherever.

There's hardly any difference between a girl in a cut-down bikini and one out of it, except the first looks scxier. And how come I can meet boy friends in a swim suit, but if I appeared wearing a slip that covers a lot more, I'd be indecent? Stupid, huh?

There's nothing obscene about the human body. Nude is the only a well organized presentation of a complicated subject. By reducing the problem to human terms and by concentrating on the really needy, the program was a public service.

Earlier, ABC presented another edition of its "Changing Scene" variety specials. It looked a lot like the earlier ones except that the guest stars were new.

Best part of the hour was the lively singing of the youthful Mike Curb congregation—seen in the earlier shows—and the enthusiastic dancing of the Kevin Carlisle troupe. The Osmond Brothers had only one number—but were effective. Jud Strunk and his down-east humor was on exhibition for too short a period. Guest host Robert Culp's singing was just about as effective as guest star Robert Goulet's stab at comedy: not very.

CBS's "Men at Law" came up with a most evocative episode—the story of an enlisted man, a Vietnam veteran being court-martialed on a mutiny charge. The charge grew out of his assault on a sergeant who had a gun aimed at antiwar prisoners in a state-side stockade.

Annual Oscar Parade Set for Tonight

By GENE HANDSAKER
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The 43rd annual Academy Award ceremonies unfold tonight amid glitter, glamour and added suspense: Will George C. Scott win the Oscar he says he'd refuse?

Scott, long critical of competitive aspects of picking Oscar winners, has denounced the yearly extravaganza as a "meat parade" with "contrived suspense."

If he wins for his powerful portrayal of the World War II general in "Patton," the academy says, his Oscar will be accepted by the film's producer, Frank McCarthy.

And what might McCarthy say as stand-in for his recalcitrant star, who is movie-acting in New York? "I haven't given it a thought," said the producer.

The evening's presentation of 22 Oscars is scheduled for telecast by NBC at 10 p.m. EST from the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion of the Music Center.

Bob Hope, making his 16th guest appearance during the ceremonies, will head a list of so-called best friends of Oscar who serve in place of any single master of ceremonies.

Others who will present the gold-plated statuettes include Gregory Peck, Sally Kellerman, Goldie Hawn, Harry Belafonte, Maggie Smith, Burt Bacharach, Angie Dickinson, Shirley Jones, Glen Campbell, Sarah Miles, Joan Blondell, Jeanne Moreau, Merle Oberon, Burt Lancaster, Walter Matthau, Steve McQueen and Janet Gaynor.

Scott is the only major nominee absenting himself for personal reasons. Assignments prevent others' attendance. Glenda Jackson is movie-acting on Cyprus, and Maureen Stapleton is performing in a New York play.

Costar Jane Alexander is to accept the Oscar for James Earl Jones if he wins as best actor for "The Great White Hope." Jones is starring in "Othello" at another Music Center theater and the play prevented his acceptance although he is scheduled earlier on the Oscar show as a present-er. Feature films made in 1970, and thus eligible for consideration, totaled 374. The five nominated for Oscars represent tradition vs. the contemporary: "Patton," "Airport" and "Love Story" suggest yesteryear's box-office hits while "M-A-S-H" and "Five Easy Pieces" have a racier new style.

Nominees for best actor, besides Scott and Jones, are Melvyn Douglas in "I Never Sang for My Father;" Jack Nicholson, "Five Easy Pieces," and Ryan O'Neal, "Love Story."

For best actress: Miss Alexander, "The Great White Hope;" Miss Miles, "Ryan's Daughter;" Carrie Snodgrass, "Diary of a Mad Housewife;" Miss Jackson, "Women in Love," and Ali MacGraw, "Love Story."

Will Return to New Guinea

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Margaret Mead, 69, says she will return in July to New Guinea, where her studies of primitive culture brought her fame in the 1930s.

The anthropologist said Tuesday she will leave her post as head of Fordham University's social science department and spend six months in the Admiralty Islands north of New Guinea.

She said she and several younger colleagues will study the children and grandchildren of the people she studied earlier.

Life Returns to Bullets and Lakers

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

All of a sudden the Baltimore Bullets and Los Angeles Lakers are very much alive in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

The Bullets walloped the champion New York Knicks 101-80 Wednesday night to tie the Eastern Conference final at 2-2. The Lakers similarly whacked the Milwaukee Bucks 118-107 to cut the Bucks' lead in the Western Conference final to 2-1.

In the American Basketball Association playoffs the Indiana Pacers drubbed the Utah Stars 120-107 to even their West Division final at 1-1.

The Bullets, who had walloped the Knicks 114-88 Sunday, humiliated the NBA champs for the second straight time at Baltimore. Led by Jack Marin's 27 points they took command in the first quarter and were never headed. They turned the game into a rout in the final period.

The fifth game will be played in New York Friday and the Knicks have cause for worry. Willis Reed, their star, reinjured his right shoulder, scored only 14 points, and sat out the last seven minutes.

Wilt Chamberlain, who scored 24 points and grabbed 24 rebounds, led the Lakers, who broke open a close game by surging to a 17-point lead in the second half over the Bucks.

Pat Riley, subbing for Keith Erickson, who underwent an appendectomy Sunday, also scored 24 points for the Lakers as did Gail Goodrich and Happy Hairston. Bob Dandridge led the Bucks with 25 points. Lew Alcindor added 20.

Larry Costello, Milwaukee mentor, praised the Lakers, but commented, "We weren't as sharp as previously and there'll be some changes before Friday's fourth game. Robertson has got to shoot more. He's too good a shooter to take only 10 shots as he did tonight."

Billy Keller, Indiana's 5-foot-11 backcourt, tossed in six three-point goals as part of his over-all 31 points to lead the Pacers over Utah at Indianapolis. Roger Brown added 30.

"This was a game we really needed," said Indiana Coach Bob Leonard. "Now we can go to Utah in pretty good shape."

Mervyn Jackson was high scorer for the Stars with 27 points. The third game of the series will be played in Salt Lake City Saturday.

Kentucky and Virginia open the ABA East Division final tonight at Richmond, Va.

Baseball Group Will Start a Goodwill Tour
SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Members of the Kansas City Royals Baseball Academy will begin a two-week goodwill tour of four Central American countries May 7.

Spokesmen said the 26 student-athletes would visit Nicaragua, Guatemala, Costa Rica and either Panama or Colombia in northwest South America. At each stop they will play games, conduct clinics and show baseball films.

The academy of the American League Royals, a pet project of owner Ewing M. Kauffman, is the only one of its kind. It combines a college education at Manatee Junior College with baseball training camp.

Upon their return from Central America they will begin play as the Sarasota Royals in the Gulf Coast League, a rookie circuit.

Times Change for Senator Reliever

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The telephone rang in the Washington bullpen and Darold Knowles got up to start throwing. The scoreboard showed the Senators trailing 5-0—a fairly safe situation for Knowles, who is one of baseball's premier relief pitchers, but not one of its luckiest.

Knowles logged 27 saves and a 2.04 earned run average last season. The numbers are more than respectable until you get to his record, which was a woe-ful 2-14.

Ted Williams, manager of the Senators, called it the phoniest record in baseball history. Knowles called it a few other things.

The problem was Knowles' knack for not getting any runs from the Senators to support his pitching. He'd enter tied games, hold the opposition scoreless for a couple of innings and then get nicked for a run and the loss. Washington rarely scored for him.

But this is a brand new season and Knowles is the proud owner of a glittering 2-0 record. He recorded his second victory in a week Wednesday night when the Senators, ignoring the fact that he was the pitcher of record, exploded for six runs in the bottom of the seventh inning and a 6-5 victory over Boston.

In other American League action Wednesday, Baltimore blanked Cleveland 3-0, New York rapped Detroit 8-4, Milwaukee shut out Chicago 2-0, Oakland took Minnesota 6-1 and California dropped Kansas City 4-1.

In the National League, San Francisco edged Houston 2-1, Philadelphia topped Pittsburgh 6-5, Cincinnati battered Atlanta 8-3 and St. Louis clouted Los Angeles 7-1. New York at Montreal and Chicago at San Diego were both postponed by bad weather.

Knowles hasn't given up a run in 5 1-3 innings spread over three games. But when he mowed down the Red Sox in the top of the seventh Wednesday night, it hardly seemed important since Washington trailed by five runs.

Suddenly, though, it became very important as Washington rallied. Mike Epstein opened with a walk and singles by Joe Foy, Frank Howard and Richie Scheinblum kayoed Mike Nagy, who had been working on a two-hit shutout until then.

An error by reliever Bob Bolin loaded the bases and then Bolin walked Tom McCraw and Elliot Maddox on eight pitches, forcing two more runs home. Tim Cullen followed with a single driving home Washington's tying and winning runs and making a winner of the perennial loser, Knowles.

Mike Cuellar spun a four-hitter and Boog Powell bombed a two-run homer to move Baltimore past Cleveland. The Orioles have won five of six games and have had four complete game efforts by their pitching staff.

Powell's two-run shot jolted loser Sam McDowell in the third inning and Paul Blair doubled home the Birds' other run in the sixth.

Felipe Alou, making his debut for the Yankees, tagged a fourth inning homer that touched off a four-run New York rally in the victory over Detroit.

Winning pitcher Fritz Peterson singled in one run in that rally and drove in another when he drew a bases-loaded walk later in the game.

Dick McAuliffe homered for the Tigers.

Rookie Jim Slaton combined with Marcelino Lopez and Ken Sanders to shut out Chicago on three hits for Milwaukee. Slaton limited the White Sox to three singles over six innings before leaving for a pinch hitter and then Lopez and Sanders finished up.

BATTING—Reggie Jackson, homer in the next inning.
Pinch hitter Tony Gonzalez cleared the bases with a three-run double as California scored all of its runs in seventh inning to defeat Kansas City.

The Angels had tied the game at 1-1 on singles by Jim Fregosi and Jim Spencer and a double by Jerry Moses. Sandy Alomar was walked intentionally and then Gonzalez, batting for Ken Berry, delivered his winning hit.

Miller Will Try Not to Blow Lead

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — John Miller, tall, slim, young and blond, stood on the practice green and had one concession to make: "Well, at least no one has called me Larry today."

The reference was to his look-alike, Larry Hinson, a regular on the pro golf tour who is tall, slim, young and blond.

"We really don't look that much alike," Miller said. "But, you know, about the same size, the same build, both blond, lots of people get us confused. They call me Larry and call him John."

But it's happening less and less, particularly after Miller's nationally televised bid for the world famed Masters title last week in Augusta, Ga.

He, at one time late in the final round, had a two-stroke lead over eventual winner Charles Coody and Jack Nicklaus, with whom he finished in a tie for second.

"I just ran out of birdies," the 23-year-old Miller recalled today before teeing off in the first round of the $150,000 Monsanto Open.

Miller, a protege of superstar Billy Casper, is a Mormon. He doesn't smoke or drink, even coffee. He's an attractive, intelligent young man, still looking for his first pro victory after three years on the tour.

He bogeyed the 16th and 18th holes in the final round to lose at Augusta. It was the second time in four weeks that he had blown a lead on the finishing holes.

Will it bother him, perhaps create a psychological block? "No chance," said Casper, a two-time U.S. Open champ and former Masters titleholder. "I spent ½ hours with him after he lost last Sunday."

"He has no fear," Casper said. "He has the right attitude. His game is just too good, his attitude is just too good for him to fail to win."

For the first time in his young career Miller is one of the favorites for the $30,000 first prize here. Among his chief challengers are Casper, Lee Trevino, Gene Littler and defending champion Dick Lotz.

Arnold Palmer, Nicklaus, South African Gary Player and England's Tony Jacklin are skipping the event.

SMU Breaks Out of Its Passing Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The loudest shot heard around the Southwest Conference spring football camps Wednesday was Southern Methodist breaking out its passing attack.

Until Wednesday, the Methodists of Coach Hayden Fry had emphasized the ground game as engineered by senior quarterback Gary Hammond of Port Arthur.

Fry ordered the ball in the air and Hammond responded with 9 of 18 passes for 137 yards, including a 50-yard scoring strike to Randy Dossett.

Dossett caught seven passes for 84 yards in the major scrimmage which followed a week of vacation.

Fry said, "We're certainly behind in our passing game and we're inconsistent offensively but I guess that's to be expected with a long layoff. The quarterbacks have a lot of work to do, but we're running the ball much better."

"I'm pleased with the overall progress. We've got a long way to go with our offensive blocking, particularly pass protection. This is the first time we've worked on passes this spring."

At Texas A&M, Coach Gene Stallings moved freshman quarterback Mark Green of Odessa to running back. Freshman Tim Truitt of San Antonio and senior Joe Mac King of Mineola handled the first unit quarterbacking.

The Aggies wind up their spring action on April 24. In Waco, Baylor scrimmaged 135 minutes in a rugged defensive show.

Johnny Bench Red Hot for Redlegs

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Bench took some extra batting practice in Atlanta Stadium.

Wasn't it nice of the Braves to supply the pitchers? Cincinnati's most valuable catcher topped off a series of fence wrecking, ripening his batting average with two singles and a home run Wednesday night as the Reds pasted the Braves 8-3.

The Bench barrage, which helped the defending National League champions sweep the three-game set, included a total four homers of his seven hits, seven runs knocked in and six scored.

His singles Wednesday night were against long-time knuckleball nemesis Phil Niekro and boosted Bench's morale as well as his hitting percentage.

"Already I've had a good year against Niekro," said Bench, whose mark jumped from .250 to .379 with this sensational series. "He's the toughest pitcher for me to hit."

Atlanta's Hank Aaron also did a job on the Cincinnati staff, including two homers Wednesday night that gave him three for the series. Hammerin' Hank, who started the series with an un-Aaron-like .100 average, skied to .342 with a 6-for-13 performance, 6 RBI and 3 runs scored.

Philadelphia trimmed Pittsburgh 6-5, San Francisco turned back Houston 2-1 and St. Louis beat Los Angeles 7-1 in the other National League games. Two contests were rained out—Chicago at San Diego and New York at Montreal.

In the American League, Baltimore beat Cleveland 3-0; New York thumped Detroit 8-4; Milwaukee whipped Chicago 2-0; Oakland blasted Minnesota 6-1; Washington topped Boston 6-5 and California clipped Kansas City 4-1.

Tony Cloninger got his first victory of the year for Cincinnati, but had to be bailed out in the last three innings by Clay Carroll, a former Brave.

The Reds snapped a 2-2 tie with four runs in the third inning, opening with singles by Tony Perez and Bench. Willie Smith bounced to Niekro, who fielded the ball and threw it into center field, allowing Perez to score.

Hal McRay then drilled a two-run double to the fence and Tony Helms got in the last run of the inning with a ground-er that scored McRay.

Aaron, now only three homers away from the 600-career plateau, unloaded a two-run shot in the first inning then fired a solo blast into the left field seats in the fourth. It was the 38th time Aaron had smashed two four-baggers in a game.

Denny Doyle delivered a two-run single with the bases soaked in the last of the eighth as Philadelphia struck from behind. The Pirates had gone ahead 5-4 in the top of the inning when Al Oliver's force-out bounce scored Manny Sanguillen.

The Pirates threatened in the ninth, but Dick Selma rescued Philadelphia by nipping the rally with men on first and second.

The Cards added all the runs they needed with two in the sixth on a double by Ted Simmons and singles by Bock and Beauchamp.

Angels' Rule Good for Travelers

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — The California Angels' 90-pitch rule reached down into the Dixie Association Wednesday night to burn their Shreveport farm club.

Dick Lang, a 22-year-old Shreveport hurler, cut Arkansas down on three hits for nine innings but had to leave with the score tied 1-1 because he had already served up 96 pitches. The American League Angels do not like for their farm club pitchers to make more than 90 pitches in a game.

Arkansas exploded for four runs in the 10th inning off reliever pitcher Mike Spellman for a 5-1 victory.

The Travelers' first run came in the second inning on a homer by centerfielder Jorge Roque. Shreveport had scored in the first when Tom Cunningham walked and scored on a double by first baseman Doug Howard.

The victory boosted the Trav's record to 1-1 and put them in a tie for second place in the Central Division of the Dixie Association. Arkansas and Shreveport are a half-game behind division-leading Memphis.

In other Dixie games, Amarillo bounced Dallas-Fort Worth 10-6, Columbus tripped Asheville 8-6, Memphis blanked Birmingham 5-0, Albuquerque nipped San Antonio 4-3, Montgomery lashed Savannah 8-2 and Jacksonville thrashed Charlotte 11-2.

and one out.
Tito Fuentes' two-out single to center in the 11th inning drove in Frank Johnson with the winning run for San Francisco, which won its third straight game.

Dick Dietz opened the frame against reliever George Culver with a single. After a strikeout, Johnson forced Dietz, but took second on shortstop Roger Metzger's throwing error. After Alan Gallagher was intentionally walked, Fuentes hit a 2-2 offering into center and Johnson beat Cesar Cedeno's throw home.

Bobby Bonds gave San Francisco a 1-0 lead in the first with his second homer, but that was matched in the fifth when Bob Watson hit one for Houston.

Jim Beauchamp and Lou Brock each hit homers and knocked in two runs apiece for St. Louis and former Los Angeles infielder Ted Sizemore tormented the Dodgers with an RBI single and steal of home.

Beauchamp's bases-empty homer in the fifth broke a scoreless duel between St. Louis' Jerry Reuss and Los Angeles' Claude Osteen. The Cards added all the runs they needed with two in the sixth on a double by Ted Simmons and singles by Bock and Beauchamp.

Coach Bill Beall said, "The defensive platoon had its finest showing of the spring workouts."

Rookie Could Be Surprise of Season

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Jim Slaton, an untested rookie the Milwaukee Brewers were pitching "strictly from hunger," may turn out to be one of the American League's surprises of the season.

The 20-year-old Slaton, who had two years of limited pro experience after leaving junior college, overpowered the Chicago White Sox for six innings Wednesday in the Brewers' 2-0 victory.

"I had a lot of butterflies in my stomach in my first major league start, but after the first few innings I knew I was all right," said Slaton. "I just kept trying to throw strikes and I got more confidence each inning."

The handsome, 6-foot, 182-pounder isn't listed in the Brewers' press guide and even Frank Lane, the club's director of baseball operations, was fuzzy on the kid's background.

"All I know is that Slaton pitched about 25 innings with Clinton of the Midwest League the past two years," said Lane. Lane said Milwaukee started Slaton out of desperation. "The kid proved in spring training he was not awed by major league hitters. He has a fast ball, a promising curve and a great desire to pitch."

Slaton checked the Sox on three singles before leaving for a pinch-hitter in the seventh, when the Brewers scored the decisive run, one that snapped a 24-inning scoreless skid.

He was signed in 1969 out of Antelope Valley, Calif., Junior College, about 60 miles north of Los Angeles, when the Brewers were known as the Seattle Pilots.

The $15,000 contract included $5,000 for actually signing, $3,000 to continue his schooling, and $7,500 based on progress. "I'd just as soon not talk about that," Slaton said.

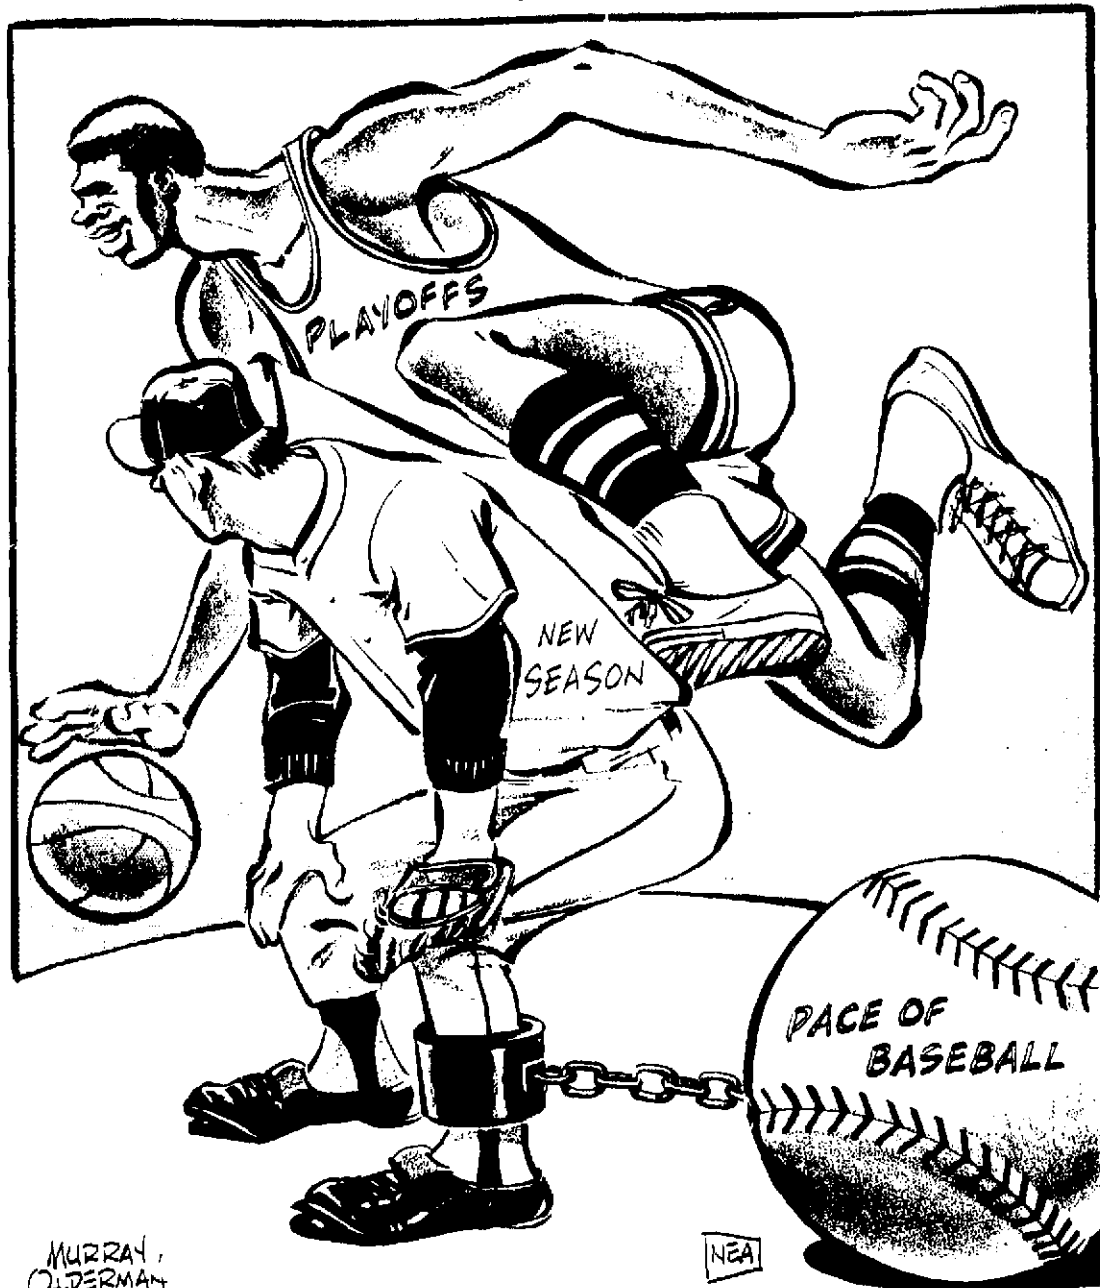

He spent 10 days with Billings, Mont., in the Rookie League. Then, in less than half a season, had a 6-3 record with Clinton. Military service interrupted his career in 1970.

NYU Talks of Dropping Basketball

NEW YORK (AP) — New York University, once a giant in college football, but which dropped the sport in 1952, now is considering dropping basketball and track because of financial troubles.

A spokesman said university officials decided at a closed meeting early this week to put the proposal before the school's senate on Thursday. If approved by the senate the proposals then would go to the Board of Trustees. "In our present position we have to raise more money, cut costs or both," the spokesman said. "For a while there was some talk of eliminating all sports. Taking everything into account on team sports, scholarships, traveling expenses, low return, it is just too expensive."

Until the recently concluded 1971 season, in which the team lost 20 of 25 games followed by the resignation of coach Lou Rossini, the NYU Violets annually were among the foremost basketball teams in the country.

Howard Cann, who later coached the team, Ray Lump, Tom Sanders and Dolph Schayes were some of the players who made the Violets a basketball power, just as Hall of Fame halfback Ken Strong made NYU one of the leading football teams back in the 1920s.

Top-ranked Roche of New South Wales, Australia, playing his first match after a first round bye, downed Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., 6-2, 6-1.

Second-ranked Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., had nearly as easy a victory, 6-1, 6-4 over Barry MacKay of San Francisco.

Stan Smith, Arthur Ashe, Marty Riessen and Zeljko Franulovic, ranked third through sixth, respectively, also were second round winners. Roche goes against Pasarell, Franulovic against Smith, Ashe against Riessen and Cox against Richey in Thursday's quarterfinals.

Derby Betting Plan Draws Complaints

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Division of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association has voiced its opposition to New York City's planned off-track betting on this year's Kentucky Derby.

In a press release Wednesday, the group said it "opposes any off-track betting which does not recognize and compensate the horsemen, the race tracks and the state in which such events are run."

The division said it is joining with Churchill Downs' officials and the state of Kentucky in the "possibility of legal action to protect their interest."

The division represents all horse owners and trainers who race at Kentucky race tracks, according to Edward Bonnie, the organization's secretary-treasurer and legal counsel.

New York City's new Off-Track Betting Corp. has announced plans to conduct an off-track pool on the 97th Derby May 1, but the plan has resulted in strong criticism from Churchill Downs President Lynn Stone and the Kentucky Legislative Research Commission.

The research commission has asked state Atty. Gen. John Breckinridge to begin legal action to stop the New York pool. Bonnie said the horsemen's association will make a decision next week whether it will take legal action independently or in conjunction with the state and Churchill Downs.

"The guys are talking about it in the dugout," says the Oakland A's right fielder. "I don't want to hit it. Because if I do, it means I'm trying for the home run and not concentrating on my swing."

Jackson finished with a career high of 47 homers two years ago. He dipped to 23 last season but A's Manager Dick Williams said Jackson "tore the cover off the ball" in 1971 spring training.

It appeared Jackson had regained his batting eye, but the regular season started with the 24-year-old slugger getting only five hits in 32 at bats with just one double in extra base hits.

That was until the A's moved into Met Stadium Wednesday. Jackson yanked himself out of the slump by tagging massive 422-foot and 437-foot homers as the A's swamped the Twins 6-1.

"It's nice to get going," said Jackson. "I've been swinging good. I just haven't hit the ball."

State Swimmer Selected

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Pat Miles, a senior at Little Rock Hall, has been selected to represent the United States in the long-distance swimming events in the Pan American Games in Cali, Columbia later this year.

Miles, 18, finished fifth in the 1,650-yard freestyle in the recent National AAU meet. The Pan American Games begin July 25 and run through Aug. 8.

Three Could Wrap Up NHL Playoffs

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Minnesota, New York and Boston can wrap up their National Hockey League Stanley Cup quarter-final playoffs tonight. But while the North Stars are solely concerned about hockey, the Rangers and Bruins also have money on their minds.

Minnesota, hosting the St. Louis Blues, the Rangers, visiting Toronto, and the Bruins, taking on the Canadiens in Montreal, each hold 3-2 leads in their best-of-seven rounds. The Chicago Black Hawks swept Philadelphia in four games to win their series.

NHL President Clarence Campbell revealed Wednesday that the Maple Leafs and Rangers have balked at paying the stiff fines he levied against them for engaging in a riotous, bench emptying brawl a week ago in their second game.

It came to $16,550—$5,000 against each club and the rest spread among the major participants in the battle.

Campbell said Leaf President Stafford Smythe has refused to pay the team fine. Ranger President William Jennings said he would appeal it to the league's board of governors.

And Campbell also said the Bruins have already announced their intention to appeal a $1,000 fine for a bench clearing incident in a regular-season game with Buffalo.

Campbell called the playoff melee "one of the most derogatory spectacles the league has produced in several years" and added "We can't go on like this. They the governors declared they want this type of behavior eliminated from the game."

Meanwhile, looking ahead to tonight's action, the teams with the lead were, as usual, cautiously optimistic and those with catching up to do were, also as usual, confident.

"Our guys were uptight for the first couple of games of the series," said New York's Ted Irvine, who scored just 34 seconds into Tuesday night's game to send the Rangers off and running to a 3-1 victory. "But we're more relaxed now."

And goalie Eddie Giacomin, who lost his shutout in the closing minutes with the Rangers two men short, said: "What's important is that we won. I'll get the shutout Thursday."

But Toronto Coach John McLellan felt differently. "I have a great deal of faith in this team. I won't quit. You'll find that out—and so will the Rangers."

Said Boston Coach Tom Johnson: "It's still not over. You need four to win. We've only got three."

Said Montreal's Al McNeil, whose Canadiens fell behind with a 7-3 loss to the Bruins: "It was a bad game—but we've had bad games before and come out."

Said Minnesota's Jack Gordon: "It's not over yet. These two teams are too evenly matched to think that."

Said St. Louis' Scotty Bowman, whose Blues dropped their crucial fifth game 4-3: "We made a mistake and they capitalized on it. We haven't been getting many gifts from them."

are repeaters from last year.

The second team included forwards John Havlicek of Boston, 15 points, and Paul Silas of Phoenix, 7; center Lew Alcindor of Milwaukee, 18, and guards Jerry Sloan of Chicago, 13, and Norm Van Lier of Cincinnati, 8.

Havlicek made the second team for the third year in a row while Sloan was first team in 1968-69 and second team last year.

DeBusschere, probably the least publicized player in the Knicks starting lineup, nevertheless has played a major role in making them the top defensive team in the league the past three seasons. Given the assignment of guarding such point-makers as Connie Hawkins, Johnson, Billy Cunningham and Jerry Lucas, he is seldom embarrassed, always doing his job.

DeBusschere, the youngest coach in NBA history when he guided Detroit at the age of 24, played in 81 games during the season and also averaged 15.6 points a game along with being a workhorse on the backboards, grabbing 9-1 rebounds.

MIKE KELLY

Kiwanian Mike Kelly had charge of Tuesday's Kiwanis Club program and presented the filmed 1970 Arkansas Razorback Football Highlights, showing action in all the conference games.

Most, if not all, of those viewing the film are more or less avid Razorback fans. With scenes shifting from game to game as the season progressed, with victory following victory, the Fall 1970 Season was relived. Needless to say, the let-down following the Texas debacle was just as apparent and just as real after viewing the film as it was last December 5th. However, a real Arkansas Razorback Fan is never licked, but just looks forward to the next season.

It was reported at Tuesday's meeting that everything is in readiness for the 28th Annual Kiwanis Variety Show to be presented this Friday evening, April 16th, at 8 P.M. at City Hall Auditorium.

Guests at this week's meeting were Mrs. Mike Kelly, David Waddle, Hubert Thrash, Robert LaGrone, Garland Medders, Roy Anderson and Key Clubbers, Ricky Hart, Wade Harris, and Mike Downs.

Miss Casals Leads Vegas Tennis Meet

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Second-seeded Rosemary Casals of San Francisco led three players into the second round Wednesday in the rain-shortened first day of the $30,000 Women's World Tennis Championships.

A downpour interrupted the day's final match, between Julie Heldman of Houston and Kerry Melville of Australia. The match was scheduled to resume Thursday, with Miss Heldman leading, 6-1, 3-2.

Miss Casals was bothered by winds in the first set but still overpowered fellow San Franciscan Ceci Martinez, 6-2, 6-2. Miss Casals committed seven consecutive faults during the first set but soon adjusted. She said afterward that the wind was affecting her toss on the serve.

Unseeded Nancy Richey Gunter of San Angelo, Tex., had an easy time with Denise Carter Iriolo of Los Altos, Calif., defeating her 6-1, 6-3. Mrs. Gunter, a recent arrival on the women's tour, is considered one of the tournament favorites because the slow concrete courts suit her strong ground strokes.

In the day's closest match, Mary Ann Curtis of St. Louis

Home Runs Feature of Card Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jim Beauchamp and Lou Brock each hit home runs and knocked in two runs apiece as the St. Louis Cardinals trimmed the Los Angeles Dodgers 7-1 Wednesday night.

Beauchamp's bases-empty homer in the fifth inning broke a scoreless pitching duel between the Cardinals' Jerry Reuss, 1-1, and the Dodgers' Claude Osteen, 2-1. The Cards added two more runs in the sixth on a double by Ted Simmons and singles by Brock and Beauchamp.

Reuss tired in the seventh when the Dodgers loaded the bases with one out on two walks and a single. Moe Drabowsky replaced Reuss and shut the door after Maury Wills' sacrifice fly scored Steve Garvey with the Dodgers' only run.

The Cards added two more runs in each of the eighth and ninth innings. Brock opened the eighth with his first homer of the season and Jose Cardenal scored from second on Ted Simmons' single. Former Dodger Ted Sizemore knocked in one run and stole home for the other in the Card ninth.

Easter Egg Hunt at Child Center

Children of the Hempstead County Child Development Center enjoyed an Easter egg hunt last week at City park. Afterwards they were served lunch at the picnic grounds. The egg hunt highlighted a week of Easter festivities planned for the children by their teachers and two on-the-job training program workers, Brenda Deloney and Loretta Phillips.

Mine Union Officials Well Paid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Salaries of officers and employees of the troubled United Mine Workers international union jumped 25 per cent last year $2.35 million, according to union records newly filed with the Labor Department.

Indicted union president W.A. "Tony" Boyle got no increase in his $50,000 salary from 1969 to 1970, but most others on the union's payroll did.

The union paid $1.88 million during 1969 to 29 officers and 77 employees. Last year, there was one fewer officer—slain insurgent Joseph Yablonski—but the union added 21 new employees and the payroll increased nearly $500,000.

The annual reports show UMW general counsel Edward L. Carey was paid $45,000 in 1970, $5,000 more than he got in 1969, making him second to Boyle on the salary ladder.

Vice president George J. Tiller and secretary-treasurer John Owens both were unchanged at $40,000. Owens is under indictment for conspiring to embezzle union funds and making an illegal political contribution. Boyle is under similar and additional indictments in the same case.

The union's executive board members mostly got increases of about $1,300 in their salaries, which are generally $22,000 or $27,000.

John Eagan, president of the 25th UMW district in Pennsylvania's anthracite country, got an $8,058 increase to $22,000. The Senate Labor Committee is examining that district's finances.

Donald E. Lawley, president of the 21st district in the Fort Smith, Ark., area, got an identical raise. Leonard J. Pnakovich, president of the 31st district around Fairmont, W.Va., was increased $6,558 to $22,000.

Howard W. Channell, assistant to Owens, got a raise of $6,250 to $27,000.

The payroll for 1970 showed 27 of the 98 employees received $20,000 or more. That included five attorneys working under Carey who were paid between $35,000 and $40,000 each. One of those was Boyle's daughter, Antoinette Boyle, at $40,000. Boyle's brother, R.J. Boyle, was paid $27,000 as an international executive board member.

Don Vought, the tall, handsome screen star, whose sensational debut as "Midnight Cowboy" established him quickly as a major talent, takes on a new role as a singer for the American Cancer Society. His health message is aimed particularly at his cancer fans. "When it comes to cancer," says the actor, "your best tip is don't start!"

May Reduce Discount on Cigarettes

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers says that a bill to reduce the commission that wholesalers receive for placing the tax stamps on cigarette packages probably would be "in order," although it is too late to consider such a measure in the 68th General Assembly.

The governor said there was a "very distinct possibility" that he would include such a proposal in the call for a special session if there is a special session.

The wholesalers receive a discount or commission of 3.8 per cent of the tax for putting the stamps on the packages. As a result of the five-cent per package tax increase approved by the legislature, the 92 wholesalers will share in about $360,000 more a year in commissions for doing the same job.

Before the tax increase, the total commission amounted to about $720,000 a year.

There was some puzzlement in the legislature about why the administration did not couple the tax increase with a reduction in the commission. Some legislators argued that unless the commission were lowered, the wholesalers would receive a windfall that should go into the state treasury.

Bumpers told a newsman late in the session that a commission was not proposed by the administration through an oversight, but he said at that time he thought a bill by Rep. Leroy Blankenship of Walnut Ridge would "take care" of the situation.

Blankenship's bill, cutting the commission to 1.9 per cent, never came up for a vote, however.

Rep. Bill Thompson of Marked Tree also introduced a measure that would have reduced the discount, but it also called for the state revenue commissioner to contract with one firm to do all the stamping. Bumpers, opposed to the concept, declined Thompson's request to make the bill an administration proposal.

Blankenship said this week that Bumpers had indicated support of his bill, but that the governor never got around to adopting it as an administration measure. "I guess because it was late in the session and he had a lot of administration bills pending at that time."

The representative said he had introduced the bill too late in the session for it to work up for a vote. If it had been designated an administration bill, the measure would have received priority consideration.

Blankenship said retaining the current commission while raising the total tax take amounted to a "big raise" for the wholesalers since their expenses will not change.

He expressed hope that the matter would be included in a special session if Bumpers called one.

The governor has said it is impossible to predict now whether he would have to ultimately call a special session.

Bumpers said this week he had not given close study to reducing the commission, but that he would be happy to talk with Blankenship about it.

"I don't want to get the discount to the point where it actually costs the wholesalers to affix the stamps," Bumpers said. "By the same token, of course, they're obviously going to benefit (without a reduction)."

Local Family of Canada Geese Features
Four Goslings Hatched Three Days Ago

Here are the four Canada Geese goslings that were hatched last Tuesday, April 13, at the editor's game preserve on S. Walnut St., as mentioned in Tuesday's Daily Bread column.

The goslings, 2 days old when photographed Wednesday, are bracketed between their stately and beautiful parents in the "Back 40" waterfall pool. Canadian "Honker" goslings bear no resemblance to their parents, being a dirty brown and showing no neck-band. But that will change in a couple of months, when adult feathers begin to appear and the neck-band along along with them.

With the 1969-hatched bird, which tried to run off to Canada but was recaptured, there are now seven Canada Geese on the Back 40. The editor will attempt to spring free each new crop of goslings so they may join the annual migration to Canada by putting a leg-band on each bird and trusting the local public to give him notice when they take off and make a forced landing due to overweight. That's what happened to "Junior," the 1969 bird, now reluctantly back home in the preserve.

Haiti Ruler Fails to Put in Appearance

By HAROLD LIDIN
Associated Press Writer

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — The failure of President Francois Duvalier to make a promised public appearance at his 64th birthday celebration Wednesday strengthened belief that he is seriously ill.

A government spokesman who last week denied reports that "Papa Doc" had suffered a stroke in mid-March said Wednesday: "The doctors have told him to take a rest."

Tourism Director Gerard de Catalogne also had denied reports the president was gravely ill and announced last week Duvalier would be on hand to review the parade in his honor. Instead, Duvalier's 20-year-old son and designated political heir, Jean Claude, appeared on the balcony of the gleaming white national palace, flanked by Gen. Claude Raymond and Col. Claude Breton.

Asked why the president had remained indoors, De Catalogne said: "I don't know."

"But this morning the president told me he had decided to have Jean Claude take his place on the balcony," a spokesman added.

The tourist director said Jean Claude's appearance as a stand-in for his father was only ceremonial. He added that the rotund youth would take his father's place "from time to time," but the president retains the executive power.

Political exiles abroad, who keep a close watch on events at the Haitian palace, had said in advance of the celebration that every possible effort would be made to display Duvalier on his birthday, and if he failed to appear, it would be a sign he was in very poor health.

Duvalier's 29-year-old daughter, Marie Denise, has been reported making the day-to-day governmental decisions. But she also did not appear for the parade.

Little Rock
Promised a
Tech School

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. B. D. "Doug" Brandon of Little Rock said Wednesday the General Assembly had allocated funds for construction of two vocational technical schools in the next biennium and it was his understanding that one of the schools would be located in Pulaski County.

Education Commissioner A. W. Ford said later Wednesday, however, that the state Board of Education, which selects sites for vo-tech schools, had made no decision on the location.

Moisture Eases
Fire Danger

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Forester Virgil Cothren says that moisture from Tuesday's showers has dissipated and the forest fire danger in the state is once again becoming critical.

Cothren said that by late Wednesday afternoon crews had extinguished 10 fires on 29 acres, were fighting seven others covering 40 acres and were on their way to fight 18 other fires.

Bumpers for New Cars to Be Sturdier

By G. C. THELEN Jr.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's new requirement for sturdier 1973 car bumpers has brought promise of a 10-per-cent rate cut from one insurance company and criticism from consumer advocate Ralph Nader.

The Department of Transportation announced Wednesday all 1973 cars, foreign or domestic, sold in the United States must have front bumpers capable of withstanding a 5-mile-an-hour barrier crash without damage to most parts. The comparable requirement for rear bumpers was set at 2½ mph.

The department originally

No Meeting
Necessary for Legislature

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Wednesday that it had been determined that it would not be necessary for the legislature to return en masse Monday following a two-week recess.

The governor said no major error was discovered that would require legislative correction.

The legislature recessed April 2 until next Monday with the understanding that all members would not return unless a major error was found that would require correction. Barring discovery of such an error, a skeleton crew of legislators will adjourn the regular session Monday.

Asked about the possibility of the need for a special legislative session later this year, Bumpers said it would be impossible to judge whether one would be required "with any degree of accuracy."

The governor said that not one legislator had suggested to him that he call the legislature into special session.

On another topic, Bumpers said that creation of some multimember districts in one of the two houses of the Arkansas Legislature might be a solution to the state's reapportionment problems.

The governor told a news conference that so many different ballots would have to be printed if there are all single-member districts in both houses, creating confusion for voters and election officials.

He said that under consideration by the state Board of Apportionment was the possibility of creating a "limited number" of multimember districts.

Atty. Gen. Ray Thornton Jr. issued an opinion Saturday saying that single-member redistricting probably would be the "most acceptable" by the courts, but that he thought the courts would approve a reapportionment plan that utilized some multimember districts in one house or the other.

had proposed uniform bumper heights and a 5-mph standard for front and rear bumpers on 1973 models. But the height requirement was postponed until 1974 and the rear-bumper test softened after resistance from automakers.

The rear requirement would be increased to 4 mph for 1974 models. And crash tests in that year would use a weighted pendulum rather than barrier.

The Allstate Insurance Co. hailed the standard as a step back toward "old-time" effective bumpers and promised a 10-per-cent discount on collision premiums who buy 1973 cars.

Three Bedroom House

This plan incorporates 960 square feet of living space with added outdoor storage and space for one car. The carport is adjacent to the rear entry which enters into the kitchen.

This plan features three moderately sized bedrooms with small closets in each room and utilizes a kitchen-dining area designed into one large room. The back door opens into the carport, providing convenience for taking laundry out or for bringing groceries into the kitchen.

The carport at the back of the house could also be used as an outdoor patio area.

The living room adjoins the dining area, providing a desirable traffic pattern throughout the entire house. This arrangement was designed to keep traffic out of the work and social areas.

Should your family be interested in this three bedroom house, you may obtain copies of the plan free of charge by asking the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension Office for a copy of Plan No. 657503.

Volunteers for Vietnam Idea Dropped

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration appears to have backed off the idea of sending only volunteers to Vietnam.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said Tuesday the possibility is still under study, but spoke of enlistment problems and reservation about asking soldiers to volunteer for war duty.

Within a few months, the number of U.S. troops in Vietnam will have reached a level at which Laird had said previously it might be possible to assign only volunteers, as was done before the big American buildup began in 1965.

"The study we have," Laird said in January 1970, "would indicate that you would have to have a force of between 200,000 and 240,000 before you could entertain a new program that would limit your forces in Vietnam to volunteers."

President Nixon announced last week he would withdraw another 100,000 troops by Dec. 1, bringing the U.S. force down to 184,000 men.

But when asked at a Tuesday news conference when it would be possible to send only volunteers to Vietnam, Laird replied this could seriously affect the administration's efforts to raise an army without the draft, a mid-1973 goal.

"There are certain problems if we split the all-volunteer force up and apply it just to South Vietnam and not as a worldwide sort of proposition," he explained.

After personally interviewing 12 enlisted men and officers, Laird said, he found many volunteers are willing to serve in Vietnam. "But it's rather difficult to go home and explain to one's wife and family that they have decided they want to go to Vietnam and serve a year or two years."

"They can go home and explain this very easily if they are actually ordered to serve there," he said. Nevertheless, the defense chief said, it's a matter "we continue to study."

Pentagon sources said the idea of sending only volunteers to Vietnam was an attractive one a year ago, but now officials are leery of it.

Boy Found Safe in Mountains

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — A 4-year-old boy is safe at home after spending almost two days lost in rugged mountains southeast of Albuquerque.

Two Air Force sergeants spotted Patrick Sanchez on Tuesday morning about 10 miles south of where he disappeared Sunday during a family Easter egg hunt in the Manzano Mountains.

Sgt. Blexley Richard, one of the boy's rescuers, said that when Patrick saw him he cried, "I want my mommy and daddy."

He said the boy appeared to be well. He said Patrick had a slight bruise on his leg and a small cut over his eye.

The boy was taken to Bataan Hospital in Albuquerque by helicopter and ambulance, but was released after observation.

Officers Are Seeking Two Escapees

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — Authorities were searching today for two inmates who escaped Tuesday night from Cummins Prison Farm.

Officials said Danny Powell, 23, and David G. Pierson, 25, walked away from the farm while on a work detail at the dairy.

Powell was serving a five-year sentence from Pulaski County for robbery and Pierson was serving a two-year term from Pulaski County for larceny by bailee.

Girl Scouts Spend a Full Day Outdoors

Recently Cadet Troop 75 and Junior Troop 311 spent the day outdoors. Troop 311 started at 10 a.m. with a two mile bike ride from Corn Belt Hatchery to Dyke's Springs. Troop 75 started at the Springs by setting up camp.

All the girls and leaders were breathtaken by the beautiful full-bloom dogwood trees, many shown in the background of the pictures.

Cakes were cooked in a cardboard box lined in foil or "Box-Ovens". A full meal was prepared on open fire.

The Cadettes spent the afternoon making and following trails. The Juniors learned to lay a fire and cook outside. It was the first time to cook outside for many of the girls. Even a little snow and rain, cold and wind couldn't force the girls to return home before 4 p.m.

Adults with the girls were Mrs. Kenneth Petre, Mrs. John M. Cox and Mrs. Earl Whitaker. With the Cadets, Mrs. Gail Sinyard, Mrs. Butch Beck and Mrs. Richard Hogue were with the Juniors.

Big Cats Are Vanishing From Earth

By BILL STOCKTON
AP Science Writer
LAGUNA HILLS, Calif. (AP) — The Asiatic lion once roamed from southern Europe to Asia. Now, 150 are left in a game preserve in India where human scavengers steal their food.

Experts estimate 40,000 tigers, lived in the jungles of India 25 years ago. Only 2,500 remain, saved when the Indian government banned tiger hunting and trade in tiger skins.

Once plentiful in the Amazon Basin of South America, the jaguar has so declined that zoologists must travel hundreds of miles to find one.

In short, the big cats of the world—lions, tigers, cheetahs, leopards, jaguars, and others—are rushing toward extinction. Unless something is done, and soon, zoologists warn, the cats will join the dodo bird and passenger pigeon as museum relics.

That was the grim picture painted here recently when more than a dozen big cat experts from India, Africa, Europe, Canada and the United States gathered to assess the future of the felidae.

"The large predators have reached the twilight of their existence," said Dr. George Schaller, a zoologist with the New York Zoological Society and Rockefeller University who spent three years studying lions in Africa.

"Shot for so-called sport, in demand by the fur industry, trapped and poisoned because they kill deer, livestock and other animals in which man has vested interest, the tigers, leopard, cheetah and others have been so ruthlessly exterminated in recent years that their future is not assured."

It's not too late to preserve the big cats, the scientists agreed. But it will be a difficult task involving international agreements with emerging nations where economic growth often takes priority over saving endangered species of wildlife.

The biggest obstacle is human population growth. In Africa, India, Asia and South America, expanding population is consuming more and more forests and grasslands, robbing the cats of native habitats and prey animals.

The Asiatic lion, for example, shares its sanctuary with several thousand humans and must prey on farmers' cattle. But groups of scavengers members of India's "untouchables" caste, are alert for lion kills and quickly move in, driving the lions away. They take the hide and meat of the kill, leaving the remains for vultures.

A more immediate threat especially to the spotted cats, is the demand for coats made of their skins.

Although most countries have laws protecting their cats, poaching continues. A poacher can sell a leopard skin for $50, as much money as many Africans make in a year. Several skins sewn into a coat might fetch $5,000.

PERSONAL FINANCE

To most of us, the buying of insurance seems as inevitable as breathing smog, and just about as exciting.

About the age of puberty, we somehow absorb the idea that insurance is good for us —like Vitamin C, or the eight-hour sleep. From then on, it's one premium payment after another, with little thought as to what we're buying, or why.

But there are some things going on in the world of insurance that you ought to be aware of. Some will work to your benefit; others won't. Either way, you ought to consider the consequences. For instance:

• If you've wrestled that old devil nicotine and won, there's at least one life insurer who will offer you a reward. The State Mutual Life Insurance Co. cuts 20 per cent off its standard premiums for anyone who's a certified nonsmoker.

The company has about $1 billion worth of coverage on some 32,000 ex-puffers already.

• If you can't make that one because you're still on tobacco, perhaps you can save a few bucks on your auto coverage instead.

This one is easy. All you must do is be 55. The Colonial Penn Insurance Co. believes that older drivers are less likely to get into accidents. So, it offers to cut as much as $75 off the cost of insurance for drivers who are 55 or older. This coverage can continue until the driver reaches 80.

• The other side of the scale on auto insurance is being tilted for the worse by the current emphasis on production models that look and act like racing machinery.

Generically known as "muscle cars," these vehicles are viewed as a temptation to their owners. Statistics show that drivers find it hard to resist the urge to imitate Mario Andretti. The result is an increase in the number and severity of collisions.

At least one major company has increased rates on such cars as much as 40 per cent. Others are following suit.

William H. Terrell Sr. Pastor. The services will be each consecutive night on the corner of North Walker and Avenue H. The public is invited to come out and be with the Lord and learn of his ways, St. Luke Chapter 1 Verses 30, 31, 32, 33, and Micah Chapter 4 and Verses 1 and 2. Those wishing to attend and have no transportation can obtain transportation by calling Pr. 7-6439.
